The physicians had concluded to open the superficial wound and examine the area from which the pus was absorbed by the drain inserted after the operation. It was impossible to make this examination without putting the patient under the influence of an anesthetic on account of the great pain. Ether was administered, the wound was opened and the lower part examined. While this was going on three doctors kept the closest watch of the patient's pulse and heart beats. Before the examination was concluded it was noticed that Mr. Whitney was sinking. The administration of ether was immediately stopped, but before its effects.

Hearing this, the man informed the authorities that if they would release his wife he would return to his house. He kept his word, returning to the house, where the authorities found him in bed after a physician had set his leg. Without any ceremony they killed him as he lay there, by firing thirteen bullets into his body. The foreign residents then became alarmed, and the German admiral informed the authorities if their action did not cease he would land marines and take possession of the city. This stopped further proceedings? General Nord afterward reached Port au Prince and the excitement is somewhat allayed. Nearly all of the legations are full of refugees."

HOUSE YESTERDAY.

S. Taylor, that he might be tried for the assassination of William Goebel. The attack was made by Mr. James of Kentucky, and the defense was led by Mr. Crumpacker of Indiana, Partisan feeling rose to an extreme tension. The diplomatic appropriation bill was under consideration at the time. Mr. James fired both sides of the house to interest and feeling by declaring at the outset the "rough rider president" was ridiculous in his message to congress favoring international extradition treaties when one state could not get from another fugitives from justice. He had, he said, introduced a bill in which the federal government made extradition the federal government made extradition to compulsory where persons had
